THE TURF.

Great Trot at the Union Course Between Cora and Lew Pettee-Five Capital Heats in Deluging Rain, and with Mud Fetjock Deep-Cora the Winner-The Stakes $1,900.

the of the best and most exciting trotting matches that ever took place on Long Island came off yesterday afternoon at the Union Course. The race was between Mr. McManns' black mare Cora and Mr. Turnbull's bay gelding Lew Pettee, mile heats, best three in five, Cora to wagon, Lew Pettee in harness—Mr. Turnbull laying $1,000 against $900. This trot was the first of a series play or pay, and to come of rain or shine; and the first race between them was supposed to be the great event intil before leaving John L's for the track the gelding first heat easily. This led to heavy betting in her favor, $1,000 to $250 being taken by one gentleman, while a number of others were giving and taking odds at the same figures. A deluging rain set in between heats, which gave the track more the appearance of a canal than a race course, and in the heaviest of the storm the horses were called to start for the second heat. heats—the one she won and the one she lost—and beat any odds. Mr. McMann drove Cera the first two heats—the one she won and the one she lost—and be-lieving he had no chance of winning any more himself, he induced Dan Mace to get behind the mare and try his chances, although the latter had never drawn a rein over her before. The third heat, as we stated above, was won by the gelding, the mare breaking badly all through. But Mace had now learned her ways and felt so confident of her winning that he induced a number of his friends to take the very long odds that were offering. Cora won the fourth and fifth heats in gallant style.

THE NORSES.

Cora, the winner of the match, was-dired by Young Cassius, a son of Cassius M. Clay, by Henry Clay, he by Andrew Jackson, a son of Young Bashaw, by the imperied Arabian horse Grand Bashaw. Her dam was a roan mare, used for hack purposes in Kentucky, but was celebrated for her great endurance. Cora is a black mare, about fifteen hands two inches high, with a star in her foreboad, and two white heels behind, with some white hairs at the root of her tail, like-Flora Temple hes. She is a finely propertioned mare, with a very equare gait, and has a great turn of speed, as she has shown in all her races. She began her career at the Woodhawn Course, Kentucky, sevan all her races. She began her career at the Addiant and the sanding start, in 2.37½, the quickest time that had ever been made by one so young at the time. She then was turned out for a while, and at five years old, a Clincinnati, in 1862, she made a heat in 2.30½. Mr. McMann, her present owner, soon afterwards purchased her, paving $10,000 for her. This gentleman did not trot the mare for some time afterwards, her first appearance on Long Island being with Lucy and Rosamond, on the 10th of last July, on the Fashion Course, where she was beaten by both the others. She was then taken to Copune, Columbia coanty, in this State, where she considering the Farless and the Burrand the Goldsmith mare, and was again beaten. She tiem trotted at the same place with Fearless and th ras then taken to Copuke, Columbia coanty, in this tate, where she contended in a race with General Butler and the Goldsmith mare, and was again beaten. She then rotted at the same place with Fearless and the Burret estallion, and was again defeated after winning the rist heats. These trots came off last fall, and she was ben turned out for the winter, during which time her waser made the series of matches of which the present was the first. Mr. McMann brought her on the rack yesterday in the fiaset possible condition, and as he old saying is among jeckeys, "M to trot for a man's ife."

Lew Pettee is a buy galding, full fifteen and a half ands high, well made all over, and possesses a great arm of speed. He is said to be sleed by an Eastern torse, named Norman; but as there are at 1-ast twenty ns number, in all of which the laker gentleman received forfeit, as the gelding-was 'off' at the time. But late in the summer Mr. Turnbull changed his trainer, and gave his horses to Biram Woodruß, and it was not long before the greatest of all trainers and drivers discovered what the horse-had in hum, and then he was matched against Bull Ram, whom he distanced the first heat in 5.06, in a two mile race in harness. Lew Petice was afterwards driven on the road, and a more stylish and dashing herse could not be seen during the winter on the Harlem lane, barring the auburn horse, Peerless and Pocahonias. The matches against tora were made during sleighing time; and Lew was soon afterwards put in training to meet his engagements. He was brought on the track in fine condition yesterday, showing that every care had been saken of him by his present trainer and driver, Mr.

MOVEMENTS OF MR. PEABODY.

His Departure for England Yesterday—Fellow Passengers. &c.

This distinguished philanthropist, after a limited stay among his countrymen, bid as recoir to America yesterday, when he took his departure on the steamship Scotia for the land of his adoption, where he amassed the princely fortune of which mankind in general is the sharer and the benefiter. He appeared in the best possible spirits, as did the others of his fellow passengers around, many of whom are by no means unknown to the public or to fame. Among them were Mrs. Herndon, the widow of the tamented Captain W. L. Herndon, United States Navy, whose heroic death on the California steamer Central America, some years ago, is painfully United States Navy, whose heroic death on the California steamer Central America, some years age, is painfully remembered. Mrs. Herodon goes with the intention of spending some years in Europe. Mr. William Prescott Smith, Collector of Internal Rovenue in Battimere, who visits England for the purpose of officially examining into the revenue system of that country; Charles E. Gregory, of Jersey City; 8. B. Mills, the pianist; General Preston, South Carolina; General Bartlett, New York city; Colonel Ingersoll and others to the number of two hundred and seventy-one passengers. The Scotia ainc took out, besides the United States mails and a miscellaneous cargo, $100,000 in specie.

HOWARD MISSION ANNIVERSARY.

Addressee by Dr. Alexander Thempson and W. C. Van Meter-Musical Exercises-Annual Reports, &c.
Steinway Hall was crowded last evening on the occasion of the sixth anniversary celebration of the Howardission and Home for Little Wanderers. The exercises consisted of appropriate addresses, Handel's grand Hallelujah chorus and other choruses, anthems, glees, &c., by the children, under the direction of Theodore E. Perkins. The orchestra consisted of the grand organ and concert plane in the hall, and Grafulla's Band. About two hundred of the children occupied the plat-was offered by Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Philadelphia.

Annual reports.

By the Treasurer's report, which was read by Mr. Phelps, it appears that the balance in the treasury May 1, 1866, was $1,698 06; that the receipts for the year were $37,154 35; expenses for the year, $32,979 22; balance in the treasury on this May 1, $5,868 19. $5,954 69 have been set apart as a building fund.

The annual report shows that six years ago Mr. Van Meter commenced this work without a dollar. On the day the home was opened he received 183 children, and during the last six years he has received 7,581, who have been fed, clothed and taught; many of whom have been placed in excellent homes all over the country. No hometess child has been turned from the door of the mission, neither has it ever gone in dobt. The burden soon became so great that a society was formed and regularly incorporated, and a board of well known business men appointed. The past year was one of unusual prosperity. The meetings were uniformly crowded, and the Sabbath school very large. About 400 were daily at the tables, and the whole number for the year was 1,531. Such is the interest felt in England in this mission, because of its care for Great Britain's absent children, that courtbutions have been sant to it during the year from England to assist in the erection of a suitable building for them. The building eccupied since the beginning of the work has never been equal to its necessities, and now wen it has had to be weared, and for a while its operations must be carried on in some of the most miserable old rookeries in the city. The Board have secured a large property opposite the old place, between five and six tots, running through from New Bowery to Roosevelt street, and are proceeding to erect buildings upon it suited to the necessities of their work. It is to be a model-building—one "as complete in all its departments as modern improvements. from New Bowery to Roosevelt street, and are proceeding to erect buildings upon it suited to the nacessities of their work. It is to be a model building—one "as complete in all its departments as modern improvements and architectural skill, applied in the light of Jong and practical experience, can make it." It will have accommodations for one thousand in its hospital for sec children, day nursery, shelter for homeless children, lodgings for poor homeless, penniless girls, and the Sabbath and day schools. In the erection of this home the cost of providing a shelter for one is but $150. The Roard confidently ask that one thousand persons, fami, lies, congregations and Sabbath Schools will each provide a sleiter for one. The work has already commenced, and in a few weeks a new and beautiful chapelfity by eighty feet, will be opened, and the other buildings be pushed forward as rapidly as the means are furnished.

ABDRESS AT DR. ALEXANDER THOMPON.

The 1 lexology closed the exercises.

WESTCHESTER INTELLIGENCE.

Accident to a Horse. Kentus.—Mr. George H. Wilson, proprietor of the Manor House, Fordham, was thrown from his wagon a few days since and seriously injured. It appears that while proceeding along the McGombs dam road, when about a mile distant from Fordham, one of the wheels of the wagon, which was going at a rapid rate, struck the curbstone, partially upsetting it, and throwing the unfortunate gentleman with much force against the sidewalk, displacing his left hip and causing other injuries of a serious though not dangerous character. He was subsequently removed to his residence and the services of a sergeon procured.
